Appomattox Printing Co. 50 Years Old This Month

October 28, 1978 will mark the fiftieth year that Jacob Lewis, The Appomattox Printing Co. will have been in business.

Beginning business in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lewis, Isaac and his brother Jacob stayed in the family home only a short time; then the business was moved to a building near the Lewis home. Issac remained in the Appomattox Printing Co. with his brother until 1942.

As the business grew and the need for more space became necessary, the Appomattox Printing Co. was moved to Atwood Street; the business remained in this location for the next twenty-one years. It was at the end of this period that the business was moved to the present location, in a building next to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewis.

Over the years, Jacob, with the help of his wife Estelle who became his faithful assistant, has done printing tor customers in Appomattox County and nearly all of the surrounding counties. On occasion he has done work for out of state customers also.

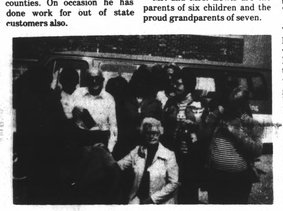
Jacob, skilled in the business of printing quality material, made the very first printing press used in the business.

One of the first jobs the printing company did was to print a small book, The Bible ABC Book, printed at the request of their father, G. W. Lewis.

Though passed retirement age, Jacob is by no means retired. In addition to the printing business he enjoys gardening, particularly growing ornamental gourds.

Lloyd Vaughan, Editor, Publisher of THE TIMES-VIRGINIAN, and a brother-in-law of Jacob Lewis got his start in the printing business with the Appomattox Printing Co. After doing a stint in the Navy, Vaughan began working with Jacob and continued there for the next two years before going to work for the Farmville Herald prior to his purchasing the Times-Virginian from Calvin Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are the parents of six children and the proud grandparents of seven.



THE COMMISSION ON AGING HELD ITS FIRST ANNUAL Senior Olympics at the American Legion on September 27, 1978. "The Appomattox Go-Getters" participated in this event came home with no trophies but they won six red ribbons and three blue ribbons. They participated in distance throw, horse shoes, checkers, bean-bag bulleyes, bucket throw, paper crumple, and marathon walk. A good time was had by all. The "Go-Getters" proved they picked the right name and they still had a lot of GO left in them.

What's Happening

By Becky Moore

It was late in the evening of October 18th almost dark, when a prominent lady of Appomattox realized it was her deceased father's birthday and she had not visited his grave which was a custom over the years since 1934.

Alone, she drove to the cemetery and did not feel exactly safe but planned to hesitate at the family plot for just seconds. As she approached the plot, she saw following her car, a man riding a bicycle. Instead of applying the brakes, she stepped on the gas and just took time to salute her father's grave and en route home thought of his wonderful life and his love for his family and friends.

"I'm sure he got the message," Rachel.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Elliott are the proud grandparents of Ashleigh Marie. Ashley and her mother Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Jr. are visiting in Appomattox and Lynchburg this week. Ashleigh Marie also visited her great grand mother Mrs. Bessie Elliott, who is in Roanoke Methodist Nursing Home. Go by and Mildred will gladly show you proof of "a beautiful future cheerleader."

Mrs. Clarence Selph, Fredericksburg, Virginia is visiting her son Joe and Lois Foxwell this week.

Mrs. Francis Brittle, Richmond, Virginia is in town visiting the Eggleston family. Mrs. Eggleston is recovering from a recent operation.

Edith Scruggs has returned home after having surgery last week. Edith is doing well, we are glad you are home Edith.

A few months ago, it was heard a young woman had received a gun shot wound and it rested in her yet! A lot of people have wanted to know just where the "yet" rested? Well I am happy to report first hand from the doctors, that the yet has moved to the "now," not injuring her otherwise.

Gossiping Helps Women To Live Longer

"Gossiping helps women to live longer than men." That's the astonishing opinion of Dr. Frederic Flach, clinical associate Professor of Psychiatry at Cornell University Medical College and Author of the book "Choices."

When a woman gets together and gossips about their problems, their feelings, their thoughts, it is this kind of outlet aids them to live longer than a man.

"Men deny their feelings," keep them to themselves, but women find it easier to confide in others, and more open with their friends.

"Keep those calls coming ladies," you will live longer, says Dr. Flach. Call me 352-8590.

Amy Carter - celebrated her eleventh birthday last week. She along with her parents attended the one-hundred and fifty fifth performance of "Hello Dolly." The star Carol Channing and the cast sang happy birthday to Amy. In the Radio City Music Hall October 19th.

Following is a short essay by Mr. K. Maynard Head the Director of Development at Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tennessee. You may wish to clip and put this in a safe place. Read often or better still, memorize it. It might come in handy sometime.

The Bible contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding. It's histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you.

It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. Her Paradise is restored, Heaven opened, and the gates of Hell disclosed.

CHRIST is its grand subject, our good the design, and the glory of GOD its end.

It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given you in life, will be opened at the judgement, and be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the greatest labor and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents.

MRS. EYE'S 4-H CLUB

At our first meeting we elected officers. They are president, Kinckle Robinson; vice-president, Steven Drinkard; secretary/treasurer, Tracey Trent; reporter, Leslie Ranson; recreation leaders, Anne Caldwell, Regina Watkins and Eduardo Garcia.

Our second meeting was held on October 16, 1978. Kinckle Robinson, president, called the meeting to order. Eduardo Garcia and Leslie Ranson led the class in the pledges. The recreation leaders offered songs and games. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

The new business to come before our club was a discussion of Share-the-Fun. It will be held on the week of November 13, 1978.

Our vice-president announced the program this meeting selecting 4-H projects and seeing slides on Share-the-Fun. The meeting was adjourned by the president.

MRS. WILLIAM ALLEN BRYANT
the former Miss Debra Jean Marks

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Debra Jean Marks to William Allen Bryant took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sweet Briar College Memorial Chapel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Marks of Madison Heights and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon T. Bryant of Appomattox.

The Rev. Sallie Carter, college chaplain, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

Miss Diana Lee Tyndall of Charlottesville was maid of honor and attendants were Miss Sally Ann Marks of Madison Heights, sister of the bride; Mrs. Timothy C. Marks, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Baxter C. Carr, both of Lynchburg.

Mr. Bryant was best man for his son and ushers were Timothy C. Marks of Lynchburg and Bryan L. Marks of Madison Heights, brothers of the bride; Nicholas J. Matthews of Charlottesville, John E. Barger of Houston and R. William Lindsay of Lynchburg.

Heath Marks, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

A reception was held at the Wailes Center at Sweet Briar immediately after the ceremony.

The bride received an A.B. degree in economics from Sweet Briar College.

The bridegroom was graduated from Lynchburg College with a B.A. degree in political science. He is employed by the Xerox Corp.

After a wedding trip to Canada and New England the couple will live in Lynchburg.
